

Arabesco

Directed by Eliane Caffé / 1990 / 15'
Color

+ Selling Points

- From the same production company that launched El Viaje (Technical Prize Cannes Film Festival) and Hour of the Star (Best Actress – Berlin Film Festival).
- Jury Prize – Madri Film Festival

Synopsis

Two burglars rob an imaginary house, where weird and absurd situations transform the reality of the burglary into two different attitudes in the face of the unknown.

Stage of Production: Completed

Genre: Drama

Language: Portuguese

Territories Available: All territories

Awards: Gramado (Short Film, Cinematography, Sound) / Madri (Jury Prize).

Production Company: Raiz Produções Cinematográficas has more than 30 years in cinema production (16 feature, 20 medium, 30 short films) and over 300 film awards, including Silver Bear at Berlin Film Festival and Brazilian official selection to compete at the Oscar (Hour of the Star), Gold Medal at Moscow Film Festival (The Wrung Out Man), Jury Technical Prize at Cannes Film Festival (El Viaje).

About the director: Eliane Caffé is the director of Kenoma, 1998, and The Storytellers (Narradores de Javé), 2003.

ADDITIONAL INFO

Market History:

Festival history:

Material available: Beta