

A origem dos bebês segundo Kiki Cavalcanti Kiki- the origin of babies

Directed by Anna Muylaert / 1996 / 14'
Color

+ Selling Points

- Starring well known Brazilian actors Marisa Orth and André Abujamra

Synopsis

The misunderstandings of a six year old girl, about adult's sexual life.

About the director: Anna Muylaert was born in São Paulo in 1964. She has worked as scriptwriter and director for both cinema and TV, realizing many short-films. In 1989, she began at the television. She joined the creation group of many shows for kids, like the awarded "Mundo da Lua" and "Castelo RáTimBum". In 2002 she accomplished, as script-writer and director, her first feature film, "Durval Discos" (Best film, director, script at the 30° Gramado Internacional Film Festival; Best script at 20° Torino Film Festival). In 2005 she wrote all 26 episodes of the serie "Nutty Boy", and collaborated in all 6 episodes of the HBO's serie "Sons of Carnival". She also wrote the last draft of the film "The Year My Parents took Holidays", directed by Cao Hamburger. These 3 works received the APCA award in 2006.

Awards: Best Film at Ceará Film Festival, Best Film at Rio de Janeiro International Film Festival

Stage of Production: Completed

Genre: Comedy

Cast: Marisa Orth, Andre Abujamra, Beatriz Botelho

Language: Portuguese Subtitles Available: English

Territories Available: All territories

ADDITIONAL INFO

Market History: Porta Curtas Petrobrás, Channel +, Spain

Festival history:

Material available: 35 mm, Beta Digital (English), Beta, DVD