

Brazilian Fashion 1981 - 2005 Moda Brasileira 1981 - 2005

Directed by Ruth Slinger / 2005 / 70'
Color

+ Selling Points

- The only documentary ever produced about Brazilian fashion, distributed to fashion schools all around the world. With a collage of her personal video archive, videomaker Ruth Slinger shows the Brazilian fashion scene from the 80's to these days.

Synopsis

Videomaker Ruth Slinger has participated actively in the Brazilian fashion scene, having registered all the important fashion events and runway shows from the 80's until present with her personal video camera. With a collage of her personal video archive, Slinger shows the fashion evolution in Brazil during the period of 20 years.

Stage of Production: Completed

Genre: Documentary

Language: Portuguese Subtitles Available: English, French

Territories Available: All territories

Production Company: Via Video

About the director: A graduate of Publicity and Advertising, Ruth Slinger has worked most of her life as a videomaker, registering all the important events and happenings of the Brazilian fashion and music scene. She has also worked directing videoclips, institutional videos, fashion editorials, TV programs for MTV and was one of the founders of the famous underground fashion store / label Liquid Sky in New York.

ADDITIONAL INFO

Market History:

Festival history:

Material available: