Synopsis

Couples is a modern comedy about different ways of expressing love on different stages of a relationship. Two couples, that are best friends, decide to get married. Between the champagne and their friendship, things get mixed up. Will love be stronger than guilt? An important businessman is in the best position: he has a beautiful lover, a new promotion, and his wife wants to have a baby with him. And then, he discovers that his wife cheats on him. What would be stronger, love or appearances?
