

America Ghettos Gueto da América

Directed by Carolina Paiva
2004
37'
Color

+ Selling Points

- Shows the routine of the Brazilian immigrants in US, that stays in the same way until today

Synopsis

Two months after September 11 in New York, immigrants from countries in the peripheries of USA survive in Brazilians, Hispanics and Portuguese ghettos, in Newark, New Jersey, 15 minutes from Manhattan, New York. The Brazilian Mob, "Gogo Girls" which makes a thousand dollars per day, qualified people force to work in construction, competition between the immigrants, prejudice, the fear of a possible bomb and other human emotions are issues portray in this totally hostile ambient.

Production Company: Flora Filmes

Genre: Documentary

Language: Portuguese, English and Spanish

Subtitles Available: Portuguese

Territories Available: All territories

Country: Brazil

About the Director: Carolina Paiva is a scriptwriter and director of several shorts, documentaries, TV shows, video clips, commercials and institutional videos. Many of her films were exhibited in Brazilian TV channels and in Film Festivals in Brazil and all over the world.

ADDITIONAL INFO

Material Available: DVD and DV Cam (with Portuguese subtitles)

Festival History:

- Mostra o seu que eu mostro o meu Film Festival, 2004
- Bahia Cinema Journey, 2004